Among illusions and emotions, the 95th birthday of the historic leader of the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro Ruz, and the 20th Anniversary of the Community Sociocultural Project Wonders of Infancy Cultivator of Dreams, were celebrated on August 13 from the heart of Matanzas.

In the thought of the Leader of the Cuban Revolution, there is the validity that children are born to be happy, children are the hope of the world and in that hope the projects are cultivating those dreams.

Under the direction of its coordinator María Eugenia Romero, Maravillas de la Infancia, has spent 20 years of effort, reflection and creation committed from the culture. Together in the challenge of being better every day in the neighborhood, the community and in the growth of a project actively involved in cultural processes.

In its beginnings it had just 10 children, and it has been on the rise, today it has more than 300 members of different age groups, boys, girls, adolescents, young people, the elderly, all immersed in the task of strengthening values.

Moments of crisis have shown that the community has an exceptional value in the life of society and Wonders of Infancy has continued to give love with the Task My Heart Touches Your Door, for which the leaders of this task were recognized, a commitment of amateur artists turned into cultural and community leaders, who complemented their efforts to the experiences of Covid 19, achieving the status of Youth for Life.

A large number of organizations and institutions came together to recognize the work of the Sociocultural Project Wonders of Infancy Cultivator of Dreams, in its 20 years of creation.

The closing of the activity was dedicated to the most tender and faithful friend, the Giant in the olive green suit, the man of the centuries, the eternal and invincible Commander Fidel Castro Ruz.
